

2010 stars are out at the 2011 Marion Palace Theatre

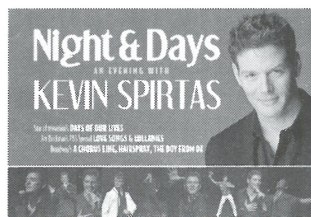

DOC SEVERINSEN & EL RITMO DE LA VIDA (Sunday, September 19, 2pm) -- Doc Severinsen spent 25 years as the colorful musical director for Johnny Carson on The Tonight Show. He began working that gig in 1962, the same year Carson began his run as the show's host. Severinsen stayed until Carson retired in 1992. Highly regarded as one of the most technically proficient trumpeters, Doc can blow a horn like few others...he is a high note virtuoso, a genuinely funny man, and always a fashion fiend. Now touring El Ritmo de la Vida (The Rhythm of Life), Severinsen is joined by gifted musician Gil Gutierrez. Tickets: $28/$23

MIKE TOOMEY TV & ME (Saturday, October 9, 8pm) -- Mike Toomey's highly acclaimed one-man show TV & ME takes you on a hilarious journey back into 1960's and 70's TV land. This multimedia theatrical event is a witty and warm exploration of Mike's only childhood outlet -- "being glued to the tube." A master impressionist, Toomey re-creates some of our favorite television characters in a nostalgic and uproarious performance that is guaranteed to leave audiences laughing in the aisles. Tickets: $20

JONNY LANG (Sunday, October 10, 7pm) -- Jonny Lang started playing guitar at the age of twelve, after his father took him to see the Bad Medicine Blues Band, one of the few blues bands in Fargo, ND. Lang soon started lessons from Ted Larsen, guitarist for the Bad Medicine Blues Band. Several months later, he joined the band, which was then renamed Kid Jonny Lang & The Big Bang. In more than ten years on the road, Lang has toured with the Rolling Stones, Buddy Guy, Aerosmith, B.B. King, Blues Traveler, Jeff Beck and Sting. In 1999, he was invited to play for a White House audience including President and Mrs. Clinton. Tickets: $50/$40/$25

LOS LONELY BOYS (Saturday, October 16, 8pm) -- Los Lonely Boys play a style of music which they dub "Texican Rock n' Roll," combining elements of rock and roll, blues, soul, country, and Tejano. The band consists of three brothers that follow the tradition of their father, who formed a band with his brothers during the 70s and 80s. To date, Los Lonely Boys has released three studio albums and a live album. Their debut single, "Heaven," was a Number One hit on the Billboard adult contemporary chart and reached the Top 40 on the Billboard Hot 100. The trio released a tribute titled 1969, paying homage to the 40th anniversary of one of history's most fabled years; the album features covers of Santana, The Doors, Blind Faith, The Beatles, and Tony Joe White. Tickets: $40/$30/$25

KEVIN SPIRTAS NIGHT & DAYS (Saturday, October 30, 8pm) -- Kevin Spirtas dips into his rich experiences from Broadway, cinema, and television to bring you an unforgettable musical evening in the theatre. Millions of people the world over know him as Dr. Craig Wesley (from Days of Our Lives) thousands have seen him on Broadway and countless people have seen him in his wide-ranging screen roles. Now everyone can experience Kevin as he brings his talent to the concert stage in an evening of sheer song celebration. Tickets: $22

ALL HEART, ALL JUDY (Sunday, November 14, 2pm) -- Judy Garland, a contralto, is renowned for the instantly recognizable quality of her voice, a voice that combines beauty, power, vibrato and vulnerability, and Daphne Alderson brings those star qualities to stage in her heartwarming performance All Heart, All Judy. Tickets: $20/$15

VON HEIDECKE'S CHICAGO FESTIVAL BALLET THE NUTCRACKER (Friday, December 10, 8pm) -- The combination of an internationally acclaimed choreographer, world class principal dancers and some of the Marion area's most talented dance students makes von Heidecke's rendition of The Nutcracker a must-see-event. This production is traditionally classical while featuring gymnastics and exciting athleticism. Start a new holiday tradition with this classic dance production. Tickets: $22/$18

CHURCH BASEMENT LADIES' AWAY IN THE BASEMENT (Sunday, December 12, 2pm) -- The Church Basement Ladies return. But now it is 1959 and the day of the Sunday School Christmas Program. As the children rehearse up in the sanctuary, the ladies of the kitchen are finishing up the goodie bags and putting final touches on the Nativity pieces. Little do they know what surprises are in store for them as they are called upon to, once again, step in and save the day. Tickets: $22

AQUILA THEATRE'S A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM (Friday, January 28, 8pm) -- Aquila Theatre presents Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream. This timeless comedy has delighted audiences for centuries, and Aquila's imaginative interpretation will renew the magic of Shakespeare's plot. Set against a classical Athenian backdrop, A Midsummer Night's Dream deals with the universal theme of love, and its attendant complications: passion, lust, frustration, depression, confusion, and, of course, marriage. Aquila weaves a web of theatrical magic that will take an audience to the heart of an enchanted forest, the injustice of the Athenian court, and the political strife of the fairy kingdom. Tickets: $20

BRUCE IN THE USA (Friday, February 4, 8pm) -- Bruce in the USA is much more than just another tribute. Matt Ryan, from the World Famous "Legends in Concert" cast, played the Springsteen character, for eight years in their "full scale" Las Vegas Show. The great success with "Legends" evolved his character into the Bruce in the USA show. His amazing portrayal of "The Boss" is as close as you can get to seeing the real thing in concert! Tickets: $22/$18

IDES OF MARCH WITH JIM PETERIK (Saturday, March 12, 8pm) -- The Ides are that rare commodity that still has all of its original members for the over thirty years since they started. It's their special chemistry that makes every Ides show a memorable experience. Their trademark combination of horns and harmony and Peterik's growling vocals always brings the audience to their feet. Tickets: $22

RICKY NELSON REMEMBERED (Saturday, March 26, 8pm) -- This year marks the 25th anniversary of Rick Nelson's passing in a tragic New Year's Eve plane crash. Ricky Nelson Remembered is a unique multi media tribute show featuring the live music of Ricky Nelson's hit songs (including "Hello Mary Lou," "Travelin' Man," "Garden Party") performed by Ricky's own twin sons Matthew & Gunnar and includes never before seen big screen video footage of the Nelson family with interviews from celebrities influenced by Ricky Nelson. The show appeals to a wide audience and multiple generations and celebrates the life of America's original 'Teen Idol.' Tickets: $22

FRANK FERRANTE'S AN EVENING WITH GROUCHO (Friday, April 1, 8pm) -- Award-winning actor/director/playwright Frank Ferrante recreates his PBS-, New York- and London-acclaimed portrayal of legendary comedian Groucho Marx in this fast paced 90 minutes of hilarity. The two-act comedy consists of the best Groucho one-liners, anecdotes and songs including "Hooray For Captain Spalding," and "Lydia, the Tattooed Lady." The audience literally becomes part of the show as Ferrante ad-libs his way throughout the performance in grand Groucho style. A show perfect for all ages! Tickets: $22/$18

IN THE MOOD (Sunday, April 3, 3pm) -- The music of Miller, Dorsey, Artie Shaw, Benny Goodman, Harry James, Erskin Hawkins, The Andrews Sisters, Frank Sinatra, and more. More than a concert, IN THE MOOD is a Big Band Theatrical Swing Revue with dancing that will blow you away. Tickets: $25/$20

JOHN TESH (Friday, April 8, 8pm) -- John Tesh is a pianist and composer of pop and contemporary Christian music, as well as a radio host and television presenter. Besides playing keyboards (including the piano), he plays the trumpet and sings, and has sold over 7 million records. His John Tesh Radio Show is syndicated on 400 stations and he is also known as the longtime host of the television program Entertainment Tonight. He has previously worked as a sportscaster for the Olympic Games, news anchor and reporter. Tesh has won 6 music Emmys, has 4 gold albums, 2 Grammy nominations and an Associated Press award for investigative journalism. Tickets: $50/$40/$25

AMERICAN ENGLISH (Saturday, April 16, 8pm) -- American English in concert perform songs covering the entire career of The Beatles from 1963-1970. With precise attention to every musical detail, along with costume changes, vintage instruments, and special effects, American English magically creates "The Complete Beatles Tribute!" Tickets: $22/$18
