We're turning back the hands of time at the Palace as we celebrate the marvels of the theatre's Mighty Wurlitzer Organ, and you are invited to join the fun!

A unique instrument, the Wurlitzer boasts more than 700 pipes which are designed to create the sounds of a full orchestra including percussion instruments, bells, chimes, whistles and horns.

On August 27th, make your way downtown to re-discover the wonders of the Wurlitzer and experience a film, just as audience members did in our theatre 89 years ago!

Playing on the big screen will be the 1929 Silent Film LIBERTY. The short comedy stars the lovable duo - Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy who play two escaped convicts. The pandemonium begins as the pair change clothes in a getaway car; however, in the chaos they wind up wearing each other's pants. As they avoid capture by the police, they desperately attempt to exchange pants in unlikely places - in alleys, in cabs, and finally, high above the street on the girders of a construction site.

Accompanying the film on the Palace's 1924 Wurlitzer Organ will be renowned organist Dave Calendine.

After the movie, Dave will play songs from "Music of the Mouse: The Walt Disney Song-Book," which features famed tunes from cartoons of the 20s through today's blockbuster hits such as "Frozen."

Don't miss this concert that organ aficionados, vintage movie buffs, and music enthusiasts of all ages will enjoy. Adding to the fun of this special event, patrons will enjoy pizza on the Palace stage and also have the opportunity to get an up close and personal look at the wonderful and mysterious Mighty Wurlitzer organ!

Tickets for admission and pizza are $16.
