Alice You are old, Father Williams, The young man said, And your hair has become very white. Any yet you incessantly stand on your head, Do you think, at your age, it is right? In my youth, Father Williams, replied to his son, I feared it might injure the brain; But now that I'm perfectly sure I have none, Why, I do it again and again!	Tweedledee/Tweedledum The Walrus and the Carpenter Were walking close at hand; They wept like anything to see Such quantities of sand. If this were only cleared away, They said, "It would be grand!" O, Oysters, come and walk with us. The Walrus did beseech. A pleasant walk, a pleasant talk, Along the briny beach. We cannot do with more than four, To give a hand to each.
Red Queen No more talking. Only running. You see, here in Wonderland, it takes all the running you can do to keep in the same place. If you want to get somewhere else, you must run at least twice as fast. And remember, in Wonderland, the more things change....the more they stay the same. You'll find yourself in the Fourth Square in no time! That square belongs to Tweedledum and Tweedledee.	Mad Hatter Don't you remember? It was at the great concert given by the Queen of Hearts. I had to sing... Twinkle, twinkle, liittle bat! How I wonder where you're at! Up above the world you fly, Like a tea tray in the sky. Twinkle, Twinkle, little bat! I'd hardly finished the first verse when the Queen yelled out, "He's murdering Time! OFF WITH HIS HEAD!"
