Let me begin this message with a quote by Helen Keller – "Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much."

These powerful words resonate with me, the Palace staff and volunteers.

Volunteers have been a part of the theatre since 1976 and play a significant role in every event. Without them, the Palace would have no ushers, ticket takers, concession workers, actors, hair and makeup, set constructors, board members, spot light operators, and the list goes on and on.

On average, over 14,000 volunteer hours are logged each season. Every minute invested in the Palace and the arts by these loyal individuals is greatly appreciated. With their help, the 1928 historic theatre can continue to keep her majestic doors open to welcome our friends, families, neighbors and out of town guests. Simply put, the dedication of our volunteers is a crucial element to the theatre's operation.

We are always pleased to have new people join our team of volunteers. With a small paid staff at the theatre, our committed volunteers provide a truly invaluable service. And as you will see, becoming a volunteer provides are many other wonderful ways
