Robin Hood: Men, I have brought you here to help me save the fair Maid Marian from the evil Sheriff of Nottingham. You will also help me in my quest to destroy the decrees of Prince John by stealing from the rich and giving to the poor. You will have to be strong, fearless and brave. You will go down in history as true warriors and heroes to the citizens of Nottingham. From this point forward, you will be known as my Merry Men!

Prince John: I have just finished my daily count of money in the royal vault and I am not satisfied. Therefore, I want to pass a new decree. I, King John, formerly known as Prince John, decree that there is to be a raise in taxes. All citizens of Nottingham and the surrounding areas will double their current taxes giving me 95% of their weekly wages.

Maid Marian: Go ahead, Prince John, throw me in the dungeon. I won't be in there long. Robin Hood, hero of Nottingham will rescue me. I have read about him in many books, and everyone in the kingdom is talking about him. He is brave and strong, and a hero to all the people. He is returning money to the poor and keeping order in this unjust society. And, while I've never seen him, I just know that he is handsome, dashing, and so very strong.

Sheriff of Nottingham*: There's been a little change of plans. We are going to kidnap Maid Marian, but instead of taking her back to the castle, we are going to stay here, in Sherwood Forest. Robin Hood, after seeing his lovely Maid Marian kidnapped, will follow us. We will hide, and when he arrives, we will jump out and capture that rotten scoundrel!
