His songs have been recorded by Prince, Bruce Springsteen, Billy Idol, Joan Jett, Kelly Clarkson, Dolly Parton, Carlos Santana, Cher, Tom Jones and The Boston Pops. And his timeless music has been heard in television shows such as "Breaking Bad," "Criminal Minds," "The Simpsons" and "The Goldbergs;" more than 42 films; and in many commercials.

His pop culture classics continue to attract multi-generations of concert-goers. "I look out at our concert crowds now and I see three generations of people."

Tommy said in a recent interview with Music Mania Podcast. "It's really amazing. When we first started, did we think we would still be doing this for 50 years? The fans and the good Lord have been very good to us."

Along with recording and touring, the artist's critically acclaimed autobiography, "Me, the Mob and the Music," a fascinating look at how the underworld tried to take control of his career, is on Rolling Stone's Top 25 Best Music Memoirs list and is now in production for a major motion picture. Additionally, Tommy hosts his own show on Sirius/XM Radio 60s on 6 channel. "Getting Together with Tommy James" airs from 5 to 8 pm on Sundays.
