

This year at Set the Stage Summer Theatre Camp, talented young performers will have the opportunity to discover that there truly is “No Place Like Home” as they celebrate Marion County’s Bicentennial.

Designed for ages 7 to 15 years, the 5-day camp experience will give campers the opportunity to develop their performance skills, while honoring Marion’s rich history which may include the 29th President of the United States, Warren G. Harding; Miss America 1938, Marilyn Meseke; Treasurer of the United States, Mary Ellen Withrow; the most famous Oorang Indian, Jim Thorpe, among other hometown heroes. Everyone is invited to celebrate with us as we discover that the journey down the yellow brick road might lead right to your own backyard!

In the past, “Set the Stage” ended with a performance on stage. This summer students will not be presenting a live show. Plans are underway for a video compilation to be shared with students and parents after the completion of camps. Camps will take place July 20-24 and July 27-31 and will be led by theatre veterans and instructors Kristi Wink, Jami Rawlins, and Emily Yaksic. The camps are split days with the morning session from 9am to 12noon for ages 7 to 10, and the afternoon session from 1pm to 5pm for ages 11 to 15. Cost for the morning session is $80 and the afternoon is $100. Camp size is limited to 27 students each week. No more than 9 students will be assigned to a room at one time.

Registrations can be made online at marionpalace.org or by mailing this registration form to Marion Palace Theatre, 276 W Center St., Marion, Ohio 43302.

PLEASE NOTE: Palace Theatre Classes and Camps Safety Policies and Guidelines will continue to evolve with time and will be assessed and updated on an ongoing basis. For the most up-to-date information, please visit marionpalace.org.
