Girls are so often stereotyped, but Jacqueline will climb to great lengths to prove them all wrong!

Once upon a time, Jacqueline had a brother named Jack. The entire village thought Jack was so smart, strong, and witty, but when the family ran out of money it was Jacqueline who used her brain to get them out of trouble.

Follow Jackie up the beanstalk in this fun and interactive one-woman show that shatters stereotypes.

Produced by TCT On Tour: A Division of the Children's Theatre of Cincinnati.

Recommended for grades preK-4.
 School Matinee Admission: $4.00 student and chaperone. Teachers admitted free. 45-55 minutes.
