Kalabanté translates to English as “a kid who always wants to try something new. He is in front of his friends, the first one to try things.”

Cirque Kalabanté is a colorful and mesmerizing live show, that symbolizes the strength, agility, and joy of life found in African culture. Presented by Geodesic Management, this modified version of their full-scale production is designed specifically for school groups.

Theatre-goers will observe daring acrobats, accompanied by their musicians, performing to the pulsating rhythm of the djembes of Guinea. With authentic and original choreography and the melodious sound of the Kora, audiences are transported to a place where the diversity of traditional African arts is illuminated and combined with the virtuosity of a contemporary Circus performance.

Recommended for grades 2-5. School Matinee Admission: $4.00 student and chaperone. Teachers admitted free. 50-60 minutes.
