Autumn has always been my favorite season. Not only is it football season but it is time to put away our bikinis and speedos and get ready for some indoor fun! The Palace Theatre is a great place to take the family, or meet up with friends and enjoy some great entertainment. We have a great line-up for you this fall: kicking off the season we have a couple of fundraisers. September 16th, we are holding our "Power Walk for the Palace." On September 22nd, we are holding our annual benefit concert, "An Evening with Friends," where we will be giving away a European Cruise for two compliments of Viking River Cruises and Anchor and Away Travel. And don't miss our Halloween Party on October 27th!

The fun doesn't stop there. We've got a variety of entertainment for you this season. Starting with our "Comedy and Cold Ones" show September 15th featuring comic Lee Hardin. Later in September, we will be celebrating the music of 80's iconic rock bands Foreigner and Journey featuring American Idol finalist, Rudy Cardenas. We are happy to host the Central Ohio Symphony once again with a classical concert, sponsored by Dr. Al and Ingrid May. October brings us our annual junior musical, "Finding Nemo JR," directed by Kristi Wink and featuring a cast of young local performers. We are also excited to feature a tribute to the Rolling Stones with "Satisfaction" on October 20th. November we will be presenting Grammy winning R&B vocal group, All-4-One on the main stage.

Being a non-profit, the Palace Theatre is grateful for our tremendous community support. If you're not a Palace member yet, for as little as $25, you can become a PCAA member and keep the Palace Theatre going for future generations to enjoy.

Now sit back, relax and enjoy the magic!
